1 Singapore → Incheon

Assemble at Airport for your flight to Incheon, Seoul "Land of Morning Calm".

2 Seoul → Jeju ~ Sangumburi Crater ~ Bonus! Jeju Tangerine Farm ~ O'Sulloc Green Tea Museum ~ Chil Sung Dong Shopping District

Transfer to the domestic airport for a short flight to Jeju, "Hawaii of the East".

Sangumburi Crater: An extinct volcanic crater filled with lush vegetation, the crater is densely packed with trees and shrubs; including magnolias, pine trees and maples. During autumn, the pampas flowers bloom all over the crater, making the views breathtaking and romantic! The slopes of the crater will also be covered with Jeju's famous Eulalia flower. These tall plume-like, gray flowers sway in the breeze. Sangumburi crater is an excellent spot to see the might of Jeju's volcanic past and enjoy the countryside.

Bonus! Tangerine Farm: During late autumn days, Jeju's fields are full of ripening tangerines. Join us to pick the ripened fruit, fill a basket and take it home as a delicious cultural experience.

Fruit picking at own expense, subject to weather conditions and harvest. If bonus tour is cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances, it will be replaced by Seogwipo Tangerine Museum.

O'Sulloc Green Tea Museum: Modelled after a green tea cup, the museum provides a cultural space and environmentally friendly relaxation area where Eastern and Western tea cultures mix with traditional and modern practices. The gallery also displays tea items and tea sets, gift shop where visitors can purchase various types of tea, tea-related food, green tea ice cream, and gifts. (Free 1 cup of green tea ice cream each)

3 Ecoland Theme Park ~ Teseum Teddy Bear Safari ~ Jimjilbang

Ecoland Theme Park: Hop on the Forest Train at EcoLand for an eco-adventure! The park features brightly painted, 1800s' steam powered Baldwin trains look-alike that circle a track in the Gotjawal forest. Walk across a large, picturesque lake via the Eco Bridge, picture the huge Dutch-style windmill and watch the hovercraft takes off from dry land, then skim and spin along the top of the lake.

Teseum Teddy Bear Safari: One of the first museums in the world to exhibit all sorts of teddy bears and stitched dolls. There are different themes, animal safari, Greek mythology, fairytale, cartoon movie characters, etc. You can even touch and hug any of the bears.

Jimjilbang: A bathing ritual that has been an inherent part of the Korean culture, Jimjilbang is a place of rest, health and beauty. It is a family affair, a perfect place for bonding.

4 Jeju → Seoul ~ Gyeongbokgung Palace ~ Bukchon Hanok Village ~ Cheonggyecheon Stream ~ Insadong ~ Ssamziegil Mall

Take a domestic flight back to Seoul.

Gyeongbokgung Palace: Known as the Palace of Felicitous Blessing, Gyeongbokgung was the main palace during Joseon Dynasty, built in 1394. Be immersed into the autumn foliage as you stroll along the palace gardens with persimmons hanging from the trees, yellow leaves of the ginkgo trees and red leaves from the maple tree branches, hanging serenely over the lake in the middle of the palace grounds.

Bukchon Hanok Village: Enjoy the beauty of Hanok (traditional Korean-style house). The sight of a number of Hanok built next to each other, sharing a wall and touching each other's eaves, will give you a glimpse into the friendly and open-hearted lifestyle of Koreans. There are also various themed cafes at the nearby Samcheong-dong.

Cheonggyecheon Stream: Clear water streaming through the very heart of Seoul, where dirty water and sewage once flowed, Cheonggyecheon stream has been reborn as a new cultural and recreational area. Fountains, bridges and various sculptures standing above the stream provide a picture-perfect view.

Insadong: Known as the traditional street, contains a mixture of historical and modern atmosphere, a unique area of Seoul that truly represents the cultural history of the nation. It is home to Seoul's oldest bookstore, antique shops, galleries, art supply shops, hanbok (traditional Korean clothes) shops, & traditional tea houses.

Ssamziegil Mall: A must visit place in Insadong. It comes with a unique architectural design - each level is connected in the form of a spiral-like stairway. Here, you can also find Korean taffy, rice cakes, traditional Korean paper craft, etc.

5 Seoul ~ Daewallyeong Sheep Farm + Cheese DIY ~ East Sea Train Ride ~ Chamsori Gramophone & Edison Museum ~ Ojukheon

Daewallyeong Sheep Farm + Cheese DIY: The only farm that raises sheep, with more than 200 sheep! The first thing that comes into view are the herds of white sheep roaming on the green plains. The sheep grazing season varies depending on the weather, but it usually begins in early May and lasts until the end of October. Experience sheep feeding and make your very own cheese at the cheese DIY session.

East Sea Train Ride: Romantic ride along the beautiful seashore and enjoy the scenic view of East Sea. Jeongdonjin station is listed on the Guinness Book of World Records as the closest railroad station to the sea in the world.

Chamsori Gramophone & Edison Museum: The largest gramophone museum in the world that combines sound and science. A fine collection of 5000 or so Gramophones, music boxes, radios, TVs and inventions of the Great Inventor Thomas Edison. At the outdoors automobile pavilion, Edison electric vehicle, Ford automobiles from 1920s, and Gramophone advertisement vehicle are displayed.

Ojukheon: A network of floral paths and traditional buildings, and the birthplace of Shin Saimdang and her son, Lee Yulgon, a famous scholar of the Joseon Dynasty, currently depicted on the W50,000 and W5,000 banknotes respectively. Surrounded by tall pines and rare black bamboo trees, Ojukheon is especially popular in the autumn when its trees burst into a riot of flame.

6 Gangneung ~ Odaesan National Park ~ Woljeongsa Temple ~ Nami Island ~ Seoul ~ Myeongdong

Odaesan National Park: One of the greatest mountains in Korea, with beautiful armful trees in every valley. Full of colour in the autumn, and with magnificent view from the stony peaks, Odaesan displays the beauty of Korean mountains with gentle ridges spreading out like a folding screen.

Woljeongsa Temple: The representative temple of Odaesan. Named after the full moon that rises above Mount Dongdaesan. The famous Octagon shaped 9-storey pagoda & the Stone Seated Buddha Figure is being preserved in this temple.

Nami Island (Boat ride): A tiny moon-shaped island located 70km east of Seoul, Nami Island is known as one of the most romantic destinations in South Korea for its stunning natural scenery. Immerse in the autumn love as the entire island is covered in rows and patches of red, orange and gold. Be mesmerized by the scenic view of wide grassland, rows of chestnut trees, authentic cottages & beautiful lake!

(Boat ride subject to prevailing weather conditions).

Myeongdong: A first-class shopping and entertainment area, Myeong-dong, is noted for its food and entertainment. Located in downtown Seoul, there are four major department stores like Lotte Department Store, Shinsegae Department Store. Many of the fashion designers and city's top brand stores line the narrow alleys of Myeong-dong.

7 Ginseng, Hoganbo Specialty Shop ~ Seaweed Museum + Hanbok Costume PhotoShoot ~ Sinchon Shopping Street ~ Beauty Skincare Course ~ Cosmetic Shop ~ Exclusive "Drawing Show"

Seaweed Museum + Hanbok Photo Shoot: Other than seeing the manufacturing process of seaweed, you can also try on hanbok (traditional Korean costumes) and taste spicy rice cakes and rice balls. Don't forget to buy some seaweed home!

Sinchon Shopping Street: Also known as Korea's Ladies Street, a popular shopping and entertainment area where there are numerous shops that sell clothes, accessories and fashion items.

Beauty Skincare Course: Pamper yourself with DIY facial session (for both men & ladies) and get to know more about the beauty tips from the professionals. Learn about the latest makeup techniques to create a style of your own and beauty products that suits you.

Exclusive Arrangement "Drawing Show": A nonverbal musical show where performers complete amazing paintings on stage. This unique show combines art, theater, and music to create a high-energy performance that will delight audiences of all ages. Over a period of 90 minutes, the performers create 10 works of arts. The hugely talented performers will keep you entertained with clowning as well as drawing large, complex paintings in just a matter of minutes. Sometimes you really won't be able to believe your eyes..

8 Free at Leisure

9 Bonus! Lotte Premium Outlets ~ Bonus! Provence Village ~ Local Product Shop ~ Incheon → Singapore

Bonus!
